

Can Government Programs Regarding Recruiting and Employee Training Save You Thousands?

In today's tough economy, many companies are looking for ways to balance their budget, often resorting to hiring freezes or letting go of existing employees. Did you know that there are programs in place that can offset hiring costs? By attending this no-cost employer education breakfast, you will learn from a panel of local experts about:

- Tax Breaks for Hiring from Specific Groups
- Salary Assistance Through Specific Programs
- Free Training Dollars to Enhance Your Existing Workforce

Participants in our panel include experts from Workforce Development of Riverside County, the Economic Development Department, The State of California, and more. You will walk away with information on the benefits to you and your community of using these programs and the practical steps to implement them. The New Beginnings Coalition, in collaboration with Workforce Development of Riverside County and Jobing.com, would like to invite you to attend this cost-free educational employer breakfast. RSVP now!

When:

August 1, 2008
8:00AM Registration/Networking
8:30AM - 10:00AM Panel of Speakers

Where:

Workforce Development of Riverside County
1151 Spruce Street
Riverside, CA 92507

Thanks to our collaborators, this event has NO COST to local employers and hiring managers. To register visit <http://community.jobing.com/default.asp?PageID=10008133>

The Inland Empire New Beginnings Coalition is a collaborative of organizations, which is committed to increasing the ability for people, who are recovering from past mistakes, to find employment for the betterment of themselves and the communities in which they live. To register to be a member of this coalition and receive updates about our on-going programs, visit <http://community.jobing.com/default.asp?PageID=10008134>

Sponsors:

